

Poem By Ivan June 2020 No 5

Another poem from Ivan xxx
This morning in my morning prayer
I suddenly wondered what to say
So many things not right
People troubled in there plight
Waiting daily for the news
Listening to the experts views
Planning the future what will be
But some expert's dont agree
Some say dont be in a hurry
And create a lot more worry
Whatever is allowed
Theres no room for a crowd
So people all over be aware
Follow instructions,show you care
As i pray that you
Do the right thing to do
The recovery of the needs ahead
To make us great again for what we shed
